

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL ARCHITECT, JOSEF JACOBBERGER DESIGNED ARTS & CRAFTS

2687 NW Cornell Road

In a bold departure from his previous more traditional style homes, this well-known architect fashioned a 1920's almost-modern home perched top of NW Portland's Golden Triangle with 4 mountain views and a cat bird's seat watching Chapman's Vaux Swifts. Low pitched sweeping roof lines and asymmetrical gable fronted roofs, are reminiscent of the Shingle style summer homes on the East Coast, according to Bill Hawkins in "Classic Houses of Portland." A true city house offering casual living in a handcrafted space and located close to Portland Streetcar and the trailheads to Forest Park a few blocks away.

4 bedrooms, 2 full and 1 half bath, 2,966 finished Sq. Ft. with 1,450 Sq. Ft. unfinished daylight basement. $675,000. MLS#10024235
