SIMPLE GRANDEUR WHIDDEN AND LEWIS'S FINEST RESIDENTIAL ARCHITECTURE

311 NW 20th Avenue

The last remaining single family mansion representing Portland's greatest architecture in Old Nob Hill. The Great Hall with its hardwood paneling and elaborate staircase remains one of the finest rooms in Portland. Built in 1904 when lumber was king, the inlaid floors, arches, pilasters, pocket doors, big porches and elegant detailing remain intact—reminding us of the grace of the day. A double lot and mature garden surrounding the home make it private and serene. 7 bedrooms, 5 ½ baths, 10,393 total Sq. Ft., garage, MLS #15350819 $1,950,000.

HEART OF HISTORIC IRVINGTON AN F.B. TURNER HOME — 1925

2510 NE Thompson Street

A classic colonial on a leafy green corner lot, built by a prominent builder—a vintage American Dream home. Proportion, solid architecture and original essences of warmth and character are the perfect base to build the house of today. A traditional floor plan—central entry hall leads to public rooms via french doors, all bedrooms on 2nd and 3rd levels, lower level family room and lots of outdoor space accessible from sunroom and breakfast nook. Irvington location, schools and transportation. 5 bedrooms, 2 ½ baths, approx. 3,722 Sq. Ft., big 1-car garage, MLS #15138205 $779,000.
